

ALASIA

Roero Arneis DOCG

Color

Straw yellow

Aroma

Ripe pear fruit, almond and tropical notes.

Palate

The palate is plump, soft and expressive, with stone fruit and baked apple characters, an attractive texture, and a nutty, herbal finish.

Grape variety

Arneis

Area

The hills of Roero, South Piedmont

Vineyards

Piedmontese Guyot training system. Plant density 4,000-4,500 vines per hectare. Exposures East and South-East at altitudes between 200 and 400 MAMSL Clayey soil tending to calcareous

Food Match

Seafood risotto, shellfish, white meat dishes.